

Limitations:

The scope includes and is limited to:

Scope of Practice limited to conceptual, preliminary and detailed design for site servicing including feasibility studies of residential, commercial, for site servicing including feasibility studies of residential, commercial, and industrial sites with a total site servicing, project cost of no greater than two (2) million dollars. Services include sewage collection, stormwater collection, water distribution, local roads as defined in Transportation Association of Canada Guidelines and site grading, minor sewage treatment (less than 5, 000 gal/day) and disposal facilities as well as minor stormwater management facilities.

Construction, administration and general engineering services related to site servicing including site inspections, progress certificates, certification of related record drawings, and BC Building Code schedule related to site servicing works are included.