

Manager, Audits and Investigations

Opportunity: Lead challenging and diverse projects promoting sound stewardship of British Columbia's forest and range resources.

The Forest Practices Board serves the public interest as the independent watchdog for sound forest and range practices in British Columbia. We are recruiting a key individual who can lead a broad range of projects including: examining significant issues affecting public confidence in the management of BC's public forests; addressing public complaints; and assessing forest and range practices. As Manager, Audits and Investigations, you thrive on diverse work assignments and enjoy working in a small, cohesive organization with a reputation for constructively promoting sound forest management.

You will be accountable for leading all aspects of preparation and execution of complaint investigations, special investigations and/or audits. Your work results in conclusions and recommendations for improving forest and range planning, practices, policy and legislation.
